

What did you say?

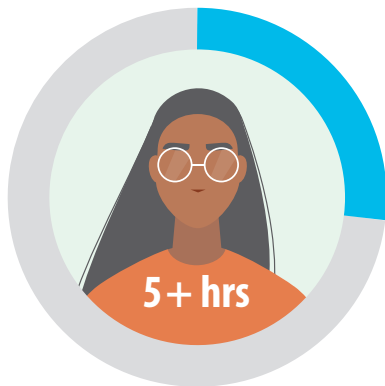

Hearing loss means lost productivity at work.

If employees can't hear, it's hard to get things done. And if they fear the cost of hearing care, will they seek treatment?

Lost productivity¹

Hours reported lost per week making up for hearing loss challenges:

37%

of those with hearing loss say they lost 5+ hours per week

20%

of those with hearing loss say they lost 10+ hours per week

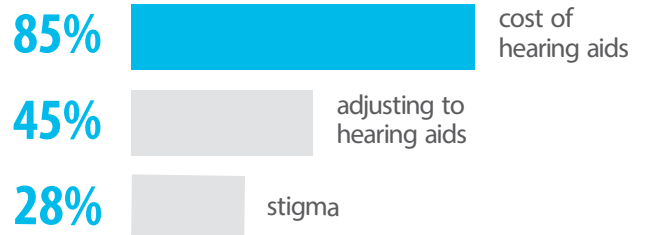

Not seeking treatment

39% of employees (ages 25-64) report some degree of hearing loss.²

90% of employees with hearing loss haven't pursued treatment.²

Top concerns employees have about hearing treatment¹

TruHearing® has the solution

When employees get the hearing treatment they need, it boosts their health and well-being, and the employer's bottom line through productivity gains.

TruHearing supports employers by offering seamless benefit implementation, marketing support, and exceptional service.

For further inquiries, contact us:

1-844-235-0595 | HearToHelp@TruHearing.com

1. Online survey conducted by TruHearing of 270 employed consumers with hearing loss, May 2021 (n=2,000). 2. TruHearing's 2023 survey included 536 U.S. full- and part-time employees ages 25-64, and 161 people within TruHearing's consumer database. Answers were segmented by those who do not have hearing loss; those who suspect hearing loss but have not sought treatment; those with confirmed hearing loss but do not wear hearing aids; and those who currently wear hearing aids.

All content ©2023 TruHearing, Inc. All Rights Reserved. TruHearing® is a registered trademark of TruHearing, Inc.

442954-2

TruHearing.com

TruHearing®